

PRESS RELEASE:

Virginia Music Adventures, Inc., Citizenship and Community Service Recognized

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 20, 2007

Band leaders Jeff Cummins, Aaron Broadus, and the Annandale Jazz Ambassadors will be celebrated and recognized by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors on Monday morning, July 23 at 9:15 am at the Board's public meeting.

The Annandale Jazz Ambassadors are one of three performing groups sponsored by Virginia Music Adventures, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to providing Northern Virginia area youth the opportunity to perform music and form partnerships with other young musicians domestically and internationally.

To date the Ambassador program has sponsored nearly 100 local young musicians age 12 - 18 to travel to over a dozen different municipalities ranging from Va destinations to the US West Coast, Australia, the Caribbean, Europe, and South America over the last 4 years.

The Annandale Jazz Ambassadors will be performing July 20 - 22 in the Williamsburg and Va Beach areas; on July 23 for the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors; and on July 28 at the Little River United Church of Christ at 8410 Little River Turnpike in Annandale, Va.
